THE MAN WHO NEVER STOPPED PROCLAIMING

A 7-Minute Sunday School Skit

Characters (5) - Narrator (calm, reflective), Suresh (simple, joyful, bold in faith), Friend (Mani / Youth rep) (observing, expressive), Wife (Annamma) (gentle, strong), Young Person (Youth) (represents those he formed)

Scene 1: A Simple Beginning (1 min)

[Stage: Warm light. Suresh walking energetically as if travelling. Friend follows.]

Narrator (gentle): Some people chase success… Some chase comfort… But some…
chase God alone.

Friend (curious): Suresh… why do you keep going everywhere?

Suresh (smiling): Because people are everywhere… and God is waiting for them.

Friend: But you don't even have money sometimes!

Suresh (laughs loudly): God has enough!

Narrator: He owned little… but gave everything.

Scene 2: Faith in Action (1.5 min)

[Lighting brighter. Movement — serving, travelling.]

Friend: We don't even have travel money today…

Suresh (calm): Let us pray first.

[Pause — both bow heads briefly]

Friend: What if nothing comes?

Suresh: Then we stay. If it comes… we go.

[Pause — symbolic "money arrives" moment]

Friend (amazed): It came!

Suresh (simple): God sent it.

Narrator: He lived… not by planning… but by trust.

Scene 3: Love for People (1.5 min)

[Soft lighting. More personal interactions.]

Young Person (hesitant): Chettan… I feel lost…

Suresh (friendly, sits beside him): Then walk with me.

Young Person: I don't know how to pray…

Suresh: Let's start simple… say, "Jesus… help me."

Young Person: That's enough?

Suresh (smiles): Yes… He understands small prayers.

Narrator: He didn't push people… He walked with them.

Scene 4: The Test of Suffering (1.5 min)

[Lighting dims. Quiet tension.]

Wife (soft, concerned): Suresh… your health… it is getting worse…

Friend (serious): You need rest… please stop travelling…

Suresh (calm, firm): Stop… proclaiming the Word?

[Pause]

Friend: This is your life we are talking about!

Suresh (deep faith): My life… is His.

Narrator: Even in weakness… his mission did not stop.

Scene 5: Final Moments (1 min)

[Dim light. Quiet atmosphere. Suresh seated or lying down.]

Narrator (soft): When the end came…

Friend (softly): Suresh… what are you saying?

Suresh (weak but clear): "The Lord is my shepherd… I shall not want…"

[Pause]

Suresh: "Even though I walk… through the valley…"

[Voice fades slightly]

Narrator: He spoke… the Word… till the end.

Scene 6: THE TWIST (2 min)

[Silence. Stillness.]

Friend (whispers): He is gone…

Young Person (confused): Then… who will guide us now?

Narrator (strong): Did he stop speaking… or did the Word continue?

[Soft light slowly returns. Suresh steps forward again, radiant calm.]

Suresh: Did you think… the Word stops… when I stop?

Friend (realizing): No… it lives in us…

Young Person: You taught us…

Wife (soft strength): You formed us…

Suresh: Then continue.

FINAL MESSAGE (1 min)

Suresh (to audience): You don't need to be perfect… Just trust God. Speak His Word. Love people fully.

Friend: Even if it costs everything?

Suresh: That is when it becomes real.

Young Person: Can we live like you?

Suresh: Live for Jesus… and you will.

FINAL LINE (ALL TOGETHER — STRONG)

ALL: "The Word of God never stops!"

Closing Prayer

ALL: "Lord, help us to live Your Word courageously. Amen."

Performance Tips - Suresh should act joyful, energetic, deeply peaceful, Use loud natural laughter sparingly (important character trait), Cancer/sickness scene → calm, not dramatic panic, Psalm 23 moment → slow, reverent delivery, Twist should shift from loss → mission continues

Core Faith Formation Message - This skit teaches: Radical trust in God, Living the Word daily, Serving without expecting reward, Discipleship through life example, Mission continues beyond death
