THE LIGHT THAT CANNOT BE PUT OUT

Characters 5 - Narrator, Ajna, Mother, Friend, Priest

Scene 1: A Child's Love

[Stage: A simple cross is visible. Soft lighting.]

Narrator: Some lives change the world not by power, but by love.
This is the story of Ajna… a girl whose heart belonged completely to Jesus.

[Ajna kneels before the cross]

Ajna: Amma… why is Jesus on the cross?

Mother: Because He loves us so much… He suffered for us.

[Ajna looks at the cross deeply]

Ajna: Jesus… don't be sad. I'm here… I won't make You sad.

Narrator: From that moment, she lived for one purpose — to love Jesus.

Scene 2: Love for the Eucharist

[Ajna excitedly holding Friend's hand]

Friend: Ajna… why do you go to chapel every day?

Ajna (smiling): Because Jesus is there… waiting.

Friend: But I don't feel anything…

Ajna (gently): Just come once… talk to Him. You will understand.

Friend: Okay… I'll come.

Narrator: She didn't force anyone. She invited with love — and hearts began to change.

🎬 Scene 3: Mission on Campus

[Ajna calling out energetically]

Ajna: Come to prayer meeting! Just come once!

Friend: What if no one comes?

Ajna (confidently): Even if only two people come… Jesus is there. That is enough.

Friend: Why do you do this?

Ajna: Because once you experience Jesus… you want everyone to know Him.

Narrator: What began small… grew into something beautiful.

🎬 Scene 4: The Cross

[Lights dim slightly]

Narrator: Then came suffering. Ajna fell seriously ill.

Mother (crying): Ajna… why is this happening?

Ajna (holding her hand): Amma… nothing happens without God. Don't cry.

Friend: Aren't you afraid?

Ajna: No… Jesus is with me.

Friend: Don't you feel like asking "Why me?"

Ajna (after pause): I ask… "Jesus, what do You want from me?"

[Priest enters]

Priest: Ajna… I have brought Jesus.

Ajna (weak smile): I was waiting…

Narrator: Even in great pain… she never stopped loving Jesus in the Eucharist.

Friend: How do you still smile?

Ajna: Because I'm not alone.

Scene 5: The Final Day

[Ajna lying down, weak]

Ajna (softly): Amma…

Mother: Yes mole…

Ajna: Don't be sad… Jesus is waiting.

[Priest prays softly]

Ajna (whispering): Jesus… Jesus…

Narrator: At the Hour of Mercy… she gave her life to God.

[Pause… silence]

Scene 6:

[All step forward slowly]

Friend (confused, emotional): Ajna loved Jesus so much… but she suffered so much too… Did Jesus really answer her prayers?

[Short silence]

Mother: Sometimes… God doesn't remove the cross.

Priest: But He gives strength to carry it.

Friend: But… she still died…

[Pause — tension builds]

Narrator (slowly): Did she lose… or did she win?

[Pause]

Narrator: All her life she prayed: "Jesus… never let me leave You."

[Ajna steps forward — now joyful and peaceful]

Ajna: And He didn't.

REVELATION

Priest: She didn't lose her life…

Mother: She gave it.

Friend (realizing): So… the miracle was not healing…

Narrator: The miracle… was that she never stopped loving.

🎬 FINAL MESSAGE

Ajna (bright, strong): Everyone wants a miracle… but the greatest miracle is this:

To trust God… when life is hard. To love Jesus… even in pain. To stay faithful… till the end.

Friend (deeply moved): Then… her life is still shining.

Priest: A light that cannot be put out.

Mother: And that light can shine in us too.

FINAL LINE (ALL TOGETHER)

ALL: "You can too."

Closing Prayer

ALL: "Jesus, help us to love You like Ajna did. Amen."

✅ This script is: Within 7 minutes, Uses minimal characters, Has a clear emotional arc, Ends with a powerful spiritual twist, Suitable for Sunday school faith formation